God Abides with Us, Through the Holy Eucharist

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Eucharistic Lord,

Thank you for all your prayers for my trip. It is good to be here with you all. Today, we celebrate the solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ or “Corpus Christi.” It originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. This feast focuses on two manifestations: the Holy Eucharist as the body of Christ and the Church as the body of Christ.

In the study of Human Nutrition, the following statements are very factual: “You are what you eat” and “good food nourishes the body.” While the physical food we eat nourishes the body, spiritual food nourishes our soul, prepares, and preserves it for eternity. The Eucharist, as the body and blood of Christ, not only makes the soul fit to dwell in a healthy body but also makes it fit to appear before God.

In today’s gospel, Christ succinctly proclaimed: “I am the living bread. The bread that I shall give is my flesh...if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you.” It was on account of this truth that some of his disciples deserted him thinking: “This saying is hard...!” (Jn. 6:61). Also, the Romans (ca. 64-313 AD) accused Christians of cannibalism. Christ said His body is real food, and his blood is true wine. Though it is a typology of the Manna that the Israelites ate in the desert (and still died), it is different because, as Christ says: “Whoever eats the body and drinks the blood of the Son of Man will never die.”

Hence, the Eucharist sustains our spiritual life, while our human food and the Manna that the Israelites eat sustain our physical and mortal life. It gives us the grace to feel forgiven and to be ready to forgive others. We go to Mass not because we are worthy. Instead, these come through the Eucharist because we always need God’s love and mercy.

So, during every Eucharistic celebration, Christ makes himself available, draws us closer to himself, and unites us with one another. Let us live the life of Eucharist which is the center of our faith and life. We need to be alive and active in every Eucharistic celebration receiving Jesus and live in Jesus. Have a wonderful week. God bless you.

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer
 Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me. Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me. Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me. Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.
