Bulletin Message 11-05-2023

Why do we do what we do for our parish church? Is it our way of sincere service to God or something else?

This Sunday readings addresses first and foremost me as a priest to serve God with humility and sincerity rather than with pride and self-seeking privileges and honor. True respect and service to God inclines us to humble ourselves and to submit to His wisdom and guidance. As a priest, all our education and academic degrees are not meant for ourselves but are geared to our service to God and His Church.

For those who have the responsibility to lead and to teach in the church and are called master, teacher and father, Jesus reminds them to remember that they are first and foremost “disciples” and “servants” who are sitting bat the foot of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Master and Teacher.

It is truly humbling to remember that we are disciples and servants in our life in the church. We know that Jesus humbled Himself and took the form of a servant who served in obedience unto death, death on the cross.

Let me thank the members of our Building and maintenance committee for the visible repairs and renovations of our church railings at St. Roch and St. Joachim churches. There is also an ongoing changing of the light bulbs to led lights at St. Roch Church.

We have also reopened our parish Thrift Shop week. Sharin and Rodeny Au have been working hard to make this Parish Outreach Ministry reopen after a long hiatus.

Please support another parish outreach ministry this coming week as we welcome and highlight our local crafters and their products to our parish property.

Only Jesus, always Jesus.
