Bulletin Message 10-15-23

Our Gospel this Sunday reminds us of a God who has already invited us to feast with Him and partake of the joy of a King hosting the wedding of his son. God has invited us ahead of His feast and we know that we have enough time to get ready and focus all our time and energy into being at His feast. All we need to do is make one decision – to join Him.

Unlike the usual invites in this world where we can send an RSVP, God only expects us to be ready and join with Him. His only interest is to join Him. However, the reality is that even with God, we send an RSVP of regrets. The real challenge is our free will to choose His interests and nothing else. Whose interests comes first – God or mine?

Ultimately, God invites each of us to His heavenly banquet to celebrate with Him and share in His joy. Who would ever refuse that invitation? Would you refuse that invitation?

Let me thank everyone who sponsored and joined our daily rosary prayer and devotion this month. We do need to pray with our Blessed Mother, Our Lady of Peace, to intercede for peace in the world.

Let me thank our parishioners and loyal friends who have stepped up their personal giving to help our goal this year to at least raise our Sunday collections to about 35%. This goal will help us this year to avoid the same deficit we incurred last fiscal year regarding our parish operating funds. God truly provides and we pray that more parishioners would commit to help achieve our parish financial goals this year.

We are all stewards of our parish here in the St. Roch and St. Joachim ohana. We do know that we need to exist in this side of the island and the people of God in this community. God sent us here to heed that task and He expects us to give our time, talent and treasure to do His divine will. Only Jesus, always Jesus!
